

We are opposed to changing the ownership rules in effect right now. Public interest must come before private, commercial interest. Democracy can only survive with a multitude of voices being accessible. Please keep the restrictions. Thank you.